

Getting your products to market is our family's business.

Whether you need product delivered across the country or state-of-the-art warehousing and distribution services, L.J. Rogers, Jr. Trucking, Inc., can help. We're a family-owned and operated irregular-route carrier and logistics company based in Mebane, North Carolina, conveniently located near the I-40 and I-85 corridors, with a terminal location in Louisville, Kentucky. Founded in 1987 as the delivery division for owner L.J. Rogers' fertilizer company, we're now helping Fortune 500 manufacturers and retailers beat their competition to the marketplace.

Our assets, your benefits

We have the people, experience, facilities and equipment to ensure that your in-transit product is safe, secure, on-time and on-budget:

- Over 475 pieces of equipment, including late model tractors and 53-foot air-ride vans.
- Courteous, reliable drivers, all of whom go through a rigorous screening and training process.
- State-of-the art communications technology that enables dispatchers to locate truck and trailer positions at all times.
- Access to affiliated carriers to ensure we can go where you need to go.
- The highest safety rating awarded by the U.S. Department of Transportation.
- A high-tech warehouse management system (WMS) that can be linked directly to customer systems to allow shared access to inventory control.
- A corporate structure that's small enough to be responsive and flexible, but large enough to meet the demands of Fortune 500 companies.

Our transportation, warehousing and distribution services include:

- Freight delivery anywhere in the 48 contiguous states, including one-day service within 500 miles.
- 125,000 square feet of secure warehouse space at our headquarters plus undeveloped land that we can use for additional buildings if your company needs more capacity.
- Logistics services including receiving inbound product, palletizing, inventory control, shipping outbound product, and tracking/tracing shipments.
